

INVITATION

INDIA/NEW ZEALAND :: What the future holds

2011 has been a very significant year in India-New Zealand relationship with the opening of the Consulate General Office in Mumbai, followed by Indian Minister for Commerce Hon. Anand Sharma's visit in May and later in June the state visit of our Prime Minister Rt. Hon. John Key to India.

What does 2012 hold for our businesses wanting to expand in India? How will the Free Trade Talks affect us? As India looks at growing rapidly, are we able to cope with the growth? Are we resourced enough to cope with the supply and demand of this ever growing economy?
